

New Jersey's "do not call" law provides better protection from unwelcome solicitation than the Federal law. Rather than support telemarketers, I would hope the FCC would act on behalf of citizen's privacy.